You know you're fuckin' tired when you start getting into some of the shit people send in. (We're) "musically, along the lines of Helmet, but more sensual." You can't get any better than that. I hope next time people just follow directions, don't send in any bullshit, and it will be just as cool but a hell of a lot easier to put together. -Bill Dozer

Okay...As you probably know, last year Profane Existence came up with an idea of publishing a complete resource guide of DIY organizations, (bands, zines, promoters, etc.) to help improve communication in the punk/hardcore DIY underground. It was a great idea, and with the help of Maximum Rock N Roll it became a reality. It was a true example of the DIY attitude and the ability for organizations to work together cooperatively to get something done.

It was an enormous project, and Profane decided to pass it along for the following year to anyone else who wanted to do it. We volunteered, for a whole bundle of reasons. First off, many of us had used the guide ourselves and had benefitted greatly from it. It made things a hell of a lot easier for some of us who had travelled, booked tours, etc. Secondly, we wanted to see the project become an annual periodical, not a one time endeavor. It was obvious that as useful as it was at that time, a lot of the information would become out of date within a year. Thirdly, we are a collective with a lot of people involved, are pretty well organized, and have the tools needed to put something like this together. (Computers, etc.) We all felt that this was a project we could handle, and we almost felt obliged to do it for that reason. We wanted to show our appreciation for others in the scene who devote lot of their time to doing cool stuff, themselves.

So here it is...As you can see, the response was incredible. It's roughly twice as big as last year's, with over 3000 listings. And like Profane, we're exhausted from it and are leaving it open to anyone else for next year.

Although it's a good thing the response was so huge, it's also a bad thing in a way. Enough to make us want to include some kind of a disclaimer. Basically, as Profane said, don't trust this. For bands booking tours, call other bands in the areas you're playing. Ask around about these people. Use your head when you use this guide. As the inside cover shows, we got a listing from fucking Sony Music Corporation. Obviously they don't get it.

Anyway, we want to thank all the people who helped us out with this. Thanks to: The Underdog Crew, Windchill Factor/Collective Chaos people, Billy and Dave from Prophets of Rage for lending us their Macs, Dan and Mandy from Profane Existence, MRR, B. Koz & Cyrus for artwork, everyone else who I can't think of right now, and especially all the people who sent in listings (that were readable and on time). -RobRoy

P.S. For all the people who plan on sending in a listing to whoever is doing it next year, do them a favor and type the fucking thing!!! Oh yeah, Disclaimer #2: If your listing is fucked up in here, it's probably because it was totally unreadable and we couldn't get in contact with you. If your listing isn't in here at all, it's probably because it was totally late. Also, if we made some typos in your listing...sorry. With over 3000 listings and a whole crew of different people typing, there's got to be some mistakes. We did everything we could in the amount of time we had to correct them. Plus, we're not professionals. Good luck with this thing...

CLOTHING, ETC.

(602) 438-2693 Geoff Wooze (602) 438-9253 Mike Wooze

Throughout the AZ punk/underground scene, there is much support for local independent and D.I.Y. projects outside music. When in AZ, look for local fabrics from two companies, Dope, and Wooze. Dope clothes feature various cartoon funksters on bright colored shirts, and can be found in Pantsman (Alma School and Elliot in Chandler) and other local independent retailers. Wooze is already being sported by members of the Phunk Junkeez and Generiks and the designs are rad.

Written, drawn and laid out in less than an hour, this is the funniest zine you'll ever hope to read, we kid you not. Sort of an Elizabeth McGovern/Thin Lizzy tribute zine as well. Free, send SASE.

TELL IT TO THE JUDGE

1202 SW 1st Ave Apt C, Gainesville FL 32601

The best Mac-generated zine of the current crop (the "Mackinest", as editor Scot might say), it's packed with heartfelt material, unpunk stuff reviewed with very punk passion and hearty requests for beer. Free, too. Send SASE.

WIDE LOAD

1412 NW 7th Ave, Gainesville FL 32603

25¢ & SASE/ Cool "Couldn't care less what the fuck you think about our zine cuz everyone in G'ville's putting out one and so are we plus we're too stoned to give a shit" effort, each issue's getting better.

ZERO

309 SW 16th Ave Apt 249, Gainesville FL 32601

A wild xerox pastiche of two roommates' drawings and writings with the sincerity just dripping off the pages. The scribbles are gorgeous, the babblings are enlightening. Free too! Send SASE

BURRITO BROTHERS

16 NW 13th St, Gainesville FL

Ultra-yummy burritos and taco stuff located near campus. Cool people work there who always try to cut you a deal.

BURRITOVISION

3421 S.E. Micanopy Ter., Stuart FL 34997 (407) 283-5074

I work at a TV station. I have a key. Somehow punk videos get played Saturday at midnight. Figure it out. Send me stuff and it will get played. Don't tell my boss.

CAFE ESPRESSO

Gainesville FL

A cultured place for a cup of java. It's on 24 S. Main St. near the Hardback. Not bad, but I prefer Clock (2010 N. Main St.) or Krispy Kreme (310 NW 13th St.).

CARRIBEAN SPICE

Gainesville FL

Lunch special: a beef or veggie flat pie patty with coco bread, carrot cake and a soft drink for $2.25. Need we say more?

CONEY ISLAND

210 SE 1st St, Gainesville FL

Lots of vegetarian stuff here (carrot dogs and black bean soup, etc.). Great place to spend a Sunday afternoon, (we brought backgammon once) right near the Hardback and the Hippodrome State Theater.

EL INDIO

Gainesville FL

New in Gainesville and definitely godlike. A bit more expensive than Burrito Bros., but they've got a bigger menu. They're north down 13th Street from the competition.

FREE FOOD

FREE FOOD

c/o St Francis House, Off of University Ave., Gainesville FL
Free dinner to all comers.

LEONARDO'S BY THE SLICE

1245 W. University Ave, Gainesville FL

This was once the big punk rock eatery a few years ago, since members of Strongbox, Spoke, Bombshell, Tao of Jones and others have worked there. Having fired all those people, they've now transformed into a yuppie "bohemian" restaurant, but the food is still pretty good and the prices are reasonable.

MAMA LO'S KITCHEN

618 NW 6th Street, Gainesville FL

Lunch special: chicken and rice, salad, a vegetable, mashed potatoes and a fruit punch for about $2.50. Need we say more?

STEAMER'S

1618 NW 1st Ave, Gainesville FL

Incredible steamed ground beef/chicken/veggie sandwiches spiced nicely and washed down with good lemonade. Delicious stuff though a bit pricey, but at least check out the walls plastered with cool personal snapshots of American soldiers in Vietnam.

THE SPOKEHOUSE

1202 SW 1st Ave Apt G, Gainesville FL 32601 (904) 338-1489 (Jonathan or Frank) (904) 378-0904 (Scot)

Although we're not very useful as a crash pad, we may be able to help you out if you have questions about Gainesville, want to book shows here or need information for similar endeavors. This is home to three bands, six zines, two record labels, and a mailorder business, so we might be a good place to start for your G'ville 411. There's also usually some sort of chaotic shenanigans taking place here (i.e. parties, fireworks, etc.) when we're not studying for exams.

Donald M. Bailey, P.O. Box 25055 1650 Main Street, Winnipeg MB R2V 4C7

Since '86 the masters of thug rockin' ear smash have devastated audiences with destructo synth'n thunder bass—proving that after Breath Grenades drugs 'R' nothing. BG's single out on No Exit Records & Susstones/Prospective/Pig's Eye this summer '93!

MEATRACK

Hedonistic heavy stuff. Musically, along the line of Helmet, but more sensual. Sexually repressed and into touring. Not as "cool" as other local bands. 12 song cassettes available for $6 ppd. Have played lots and lots of shows and have little wangs.

CHRONICORE

P.O. Box 2177, Groningen 9704 CD, (202) 797-1095

"Da's Pas hardcore" (Klaas), released their debut album at the end of 1992. Also on 'Highly Obscure'. I wouldn't deny to say that this one's almost better than R.P. Also available on this address, a mailorder list with a lot of cool items which are hard to find elsewhere. Write these guys and say hello.

? MISCELLANEOUS

BELGRADE

In case of emergencies, try the army hospital along General Zdanova Street. (You're going to have to ask someone for more explicit directions!) Don't try to phone first, it's a waste of time, just go straight there. They accept emergency cases free of charge. For crash pads it is best to send flyers to promoters and they will post them at Dom Omaldine or the Happy New Gallery in the Student Center, possibly somewhere else. There is a new monthly newsletter and fanzine called "What's my name" done by a few individuals. It is available only at gigs at Bunker Club. Contact Intermusic. We will inform the public! To find food, drink and shelter in general, you'll find that most people are open-minded and helpful to foreigners. If you are behave decently and are respectful, you will get decent hospitality. Try to ask in advance for what you need.

THAT'S IT FOR THIS YEAR'S LISTINGS. I'M NOT TOO SURE IF THE UNDERDOG RECORDS COLLECTIVE WILL BE UP FOR THE TASK OF TYPING IN ALL OF NEXT YEAR'S EDITION (WHICH WILL PROBABLY BE BIGGER AGAIN THAN THIS YEAR'S), BUT IF THERE ARE ANY REPUTABLE GROUPS OUT THERE WHO WOULD LIKE TO TAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THAT COME NEXT YEAR, GET IN TOUCH WITH ME ABOUT THE DETAILS. MUST HAVE ACCESS TO A GOOD POOL OF TYPISTS AND SEVERAL MACINTOSH COMPUTERS!

THERE WAS NO REASON TO THINK THAT POPUL music would survive the 1980's with a shred of dignity. Increasingly distant from its roots, swallowed by ever-expanding media conglomerates, upstaged by neo imagery and marketed with unrelenting repetition, it had easily become as glittery, superficial and disposable as her American consumer products. But despite — and somewhat because of — those changes, as 1993 begins, it is clear that the 1990's have brought better popular music than anyone expected.

Sony Music Entertainment Inc.

I am writing in regards to your submission for the second annual "Book Your Own Fuckin' Life" D.I.Y. resource guide. I don't know why your office felt compelled to send a letter to us, but I can guess that one of two things is happening...

#1 You are completely unaware of the nature of the D.I.Y. (do it yourself) punk/hardcore thing. It hates your company and all it stands for. If you did obtain a tape from any of the bands therein, the odds are high that many of the songs would be about how you suck, MTV sucks, corporate exploitation of underground culture sucks, etc.

or #2 You are completely aware that many bands want to "make it big," have "their shot at the big time." Sony Music Entertainment Inc. is looking for artists to flesh out their "alternative" roster. You're offering stardom in the guise of "getting your message to a larger audience" and "better distribution." You think you'll get someone to bite.

If situation #1 applies, I almost feel sorry for you. The fact that this D.I.Y. guide exists is proof positive that you are not needed. Sony Music Ent. Inc. is not the ultimate goal of this scene. In fact, it serves us better as a model of what not to be, how not to be, and what not to do. Thanx. Next time don't buy a stamp—save your money and buy a ticket on the clue bus.

If your reasoning followed #2, welcome; you have made a wise advertising decision. You will probably get plenty of "punk/HC" bands who want to be next year's "alternative" heroes playing the great rock bars from coast to coast, and being recognized by fans from their "underground" videos on MTV. You can have them.

Fuck you very much — Underdog.
